

Lecture on “Tribal Pride Year”

Date: 10th October 2025

Time: 1:30 PM

Venue: Conference Hall, Malti Dhari College, Naubatpur, Patna

On the occasion of “Tribal Pride Year,” Malti Dhari College organized an inspiring lecture program to raise awareness among students about the rich traditions, culture, and contributions of tribal communities in nation-building.

The program began with lamp lighting by Principal Dr. Akhilesh Kumar, Coordinator Dr. Gorakh Ram, and other dignitaries. Principal Dr. Kumar emphasized the importance of learning from tribal heroes to strengthen unity, coexistence, and equality in society.

Dr. Kumari Bharti (Department of Philosophy) conducted the session, highlighting tribal life philosophy, human values, and connection with nature. Dr. Ankit Kumar discussed social and economic challenges faced by tribal communities, including education, health, and employment, emphasizing the importance of local opportunities to prevent migration of youth.

Dr. Hemant Kumar Jha delivered a motivational talk on tribal resilience, self-pride, and cultural diversity. The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Jha, appreciating the contributions of all participants.

Objectives:

1. To familiarize students with the glorious history, culture, and traditions of India’s tribal communities.
2. To raise awareness of the contribution of tribal heroes in the freedom struggle and nation-building.
3. To encourage meaningful discourse on social, economic, educational, and cultural challenges faced by tribal communities.
4. To strengthen values of equality, social justice, coexistence, and inclusive development.
5. To sensitize students about migration, education, skill development, and employment challenges for tribal youth.
6. To align with NEP and NAAC goals of value-based, socially-oriented, and student-centered education for holistic development.

Conclusion:

The lecture on “Tribal Pride Year” was highly successful, knowledge-enriching, and inspiring. It provided students with an opportunity to understand tribal communities’ cultural richness, resilience, and invaluable contribution to nation-building. The event, under the guidance of Principal Dr. Akhilesh Kumar and coordination of Dr. Gorakh Ram, reflected the college’s social commitment, academic quality, and adherence to NAAC standards, establishing a strong foundation for continued awareness and dialogue on important social and academic issues.

