

Dandiya Fest 2025

Date: 27th September 2025

Venue: Malti Dhari College, Naubatpur, Patna

Organized by: Cultural Committee / Student Welfare Cell

Supervision: Principal Dr. Akhilesh Kumar

Programme Report:

On 27th September 2025, Malti Dhari College organized a grand and enthusiastic Dandiya Fest 2025 to promote Indian cultural traditions, folk art, and community harmony. The event was a significant initiative to enhance students' cultural awareness, team spirit, and creative expression.

The program commenced with lamp lighting under the guidance of Principal Dr. Akhilesh Kumar, who emphasized the importance of cultural events for students' holistic development, mental balance, and preservation of Indian traditions.

Students performed Dandiya and Garba dances in traditional attire, accompanied by folk music and rhythmic movements, creating a festive atmosphere across the campus. Faculty members from various departments, non-teaching staff, and a large number of students attended, exemplifying discipline, cooperation, and cultural harmony.

Objectives:

1. To cultivate awareness of Indian folk culture and traditions among students.
2. To promote creative, social, and emotional development of students.
3. To create a positive, inclusive, and festive environment on campus.
4. To strengthen co-curricular and extra-curricular activities in accordance with NAAC and NEP-2020 guidelines.

Conclusion:

Dandiya Fest 2025 proved to be a successful, disciplined, and highly impactful cultural event. It connected students to their cultural heritage while fostering confidence, leadership, and teamwork. Under the guidance of Principal Dr. Akhilesh Kumar, the event reflected the college's academic quality, cultural richness, and NAAC-aligned initiatives.
