“Kavyanjali”: Poetry Evening on Ramdhari Singh ‘Dinkar’ Jayanti

Date: 23rd September 2025

Venue: Malti Dhari College, Naubatpur, Patna

Organized by: Literary & Cultural Committee

Programme Report:

On 23rd September 2025, a grand and emotionally enriching poetry evening “Kavyanjali” was organized to commemorate the birth anniversary of Rashtrakavi Ramdhari Singh ‘Dinkar’. The event celebrated literature, expression, and creative freedom.

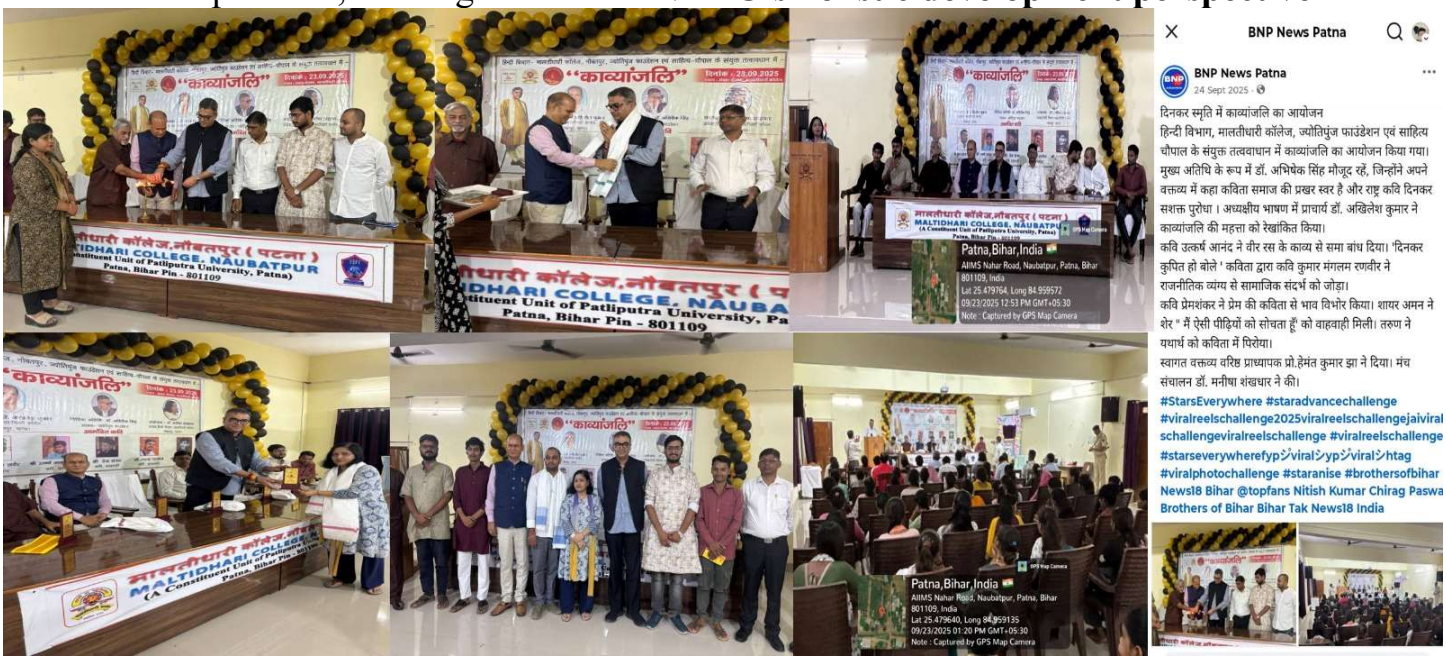
While dedicated to Dinkar’s memory—whose poetry embodies freedom, patriotism, struggle, and vigor—the evening also highlighted human emotions, love, grief, and memory, providing a broader literary experience. The poems used symbols and imagery, such as overflowing wine and cigarette smoke, to depict life struggles while celebrating love as a source of resilience.

Audience Engagement:

The auditorium came alive with claps, appreciation, and enthusiastic responses, creating an interactive and vibrant atmosphere.

Objectives:

1. To commemorate Rashtrakavi Dinkar’s literary contributions.
2. To cultivate literary interest among students and audience.
3. To express human emotions, love, and social realities through poetry.
4. To provide a platform for creative expression.

Conclusion:


“Kavyanjali” successfully demonstrated that poetry represents not only patriotism but also human emotion and love. The event showcased the college’s literary and cultural consciousness, freedom of expression, and alignment with NAAC’s holistic development perspective.
