

Retirement Felicitation

Date: 31 January 2026

Venue: Malti Dhari College, Naubatpur, Patna

With these heartfelt lines, Malti Dhari College bid a warm and emotional farewell to one of its valued members, Shri Kishun Deo Prasad, on the occasion of his retirement.

Shri Kishun Deo Prasad was known for his cheerful personality and ever-smiling nature. His jolly temperament and lighthearted approach made him popular among colleagues and students alike. Even on his retirement day, he filled the atmosphere with laughter through his engaging and humorous narratives, leaving behind memories that will be cherished for years to come.

Highlights of the Occasion

- Warm farewell organized by the college family
- Celebration of his dedicated service and positive spirit
- Memorable moments filled with laughter and emotions
- Heartfelt wishes shared by colleagues and staff

Concluding Remark

The retirement of Shri Kishun Deo Prasad marks the end of an era of joyful presence within the institution. The college fraternity extends its sincere gratitude for his services and wishes him a long, happy, and healthy life ahead.

