

National Student Parliament (Mock Parliament)

Date: 23 February 2026

Venue: Samvad Mandapam, Malti Dhari College, Naubatpur, Patna

On 23 February 2026, Malti Dhari College organized a mock parliament titled “राष्ट्रीय छात्र संसद” at the Samvad Mandapam, offering students a practical insight into the functioning of democracy and parliamentary procedures.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students who took on the roles of ministers and parliamentarians. The College Budget 2026 was effectively presented by Sakshi Kumari, acting as the Student Finance Minister. The discussions and debates were intellectually rich, reflecting clarity of thought, confidence, and analytical ability among the participants.

The disciplined yet dynamic exchange of ideas impressed the chief guests, faculty members, and audience. Students demonstrated remarkable confidence in their questions and responses while maintaining decorum throughout the session.

Key Highlights

- Realistic enactment of parliamentary proceedings
- Presentation and debate on College Budget 2026
- Active and disciplined participation by students
- Promotion of democratic values and political awareness
- Understanding the role of opposition in a democracy

Concluding Remark

The National Student Parliament proved to be an enriching academic exercise, fostering awareness about governance, responsibilities of public representatives, and democratic functioning. It encouraged students to become responsible, conscious citizens and inspired educated youth to actively participate in politics for nation building.

